

English Language Questions Waec Candidate/Private

Question 1

Your pen friend abroad has written a letter asking you about the latest fashion and its effects on the youth in your country. Write a reply.

Question 2

Since the introduction of video films into your country, there has been a rise in juvenile delinquency. Write an article suitable for publication in a national newspaper on the need for the Government to regulate the importation of these films.

Question 3

Write a letter to the Postmaster of your area expressing your dissatisfaction with the operations of the Post Office and suggesting three ways of improving the services.

Question 4

You have learned that your younger brother intends to involve himself in examination malpractice during the WASSCE. Write a letter to him warning him of the dangers of such an action and urging him to concentrate on his studies instead.

Question 5

Write an article suitable for publication in one of your national dailies discussing the vandalization of public facilities in your country and its effects.

Question 6

Write a letter to the Minister of Works in your country complaining about the deplorable condition of the roads in your area and the effects this has on the lives of your people.

Question 7

You are the Chief Speaker in a debate on the topic: The Television has done more harm than good. Write your speech for or against the topic.

Question 8

Write a story to illustrate the saying: The early bird catches the worm.

Question 9

You have been staying with your elder brother for some time and a misunderstanding has ensued. Write a letter to your father giving at least three reasons why you feel you can no longer live with your brother.

Question 10

You recently took part in an excursion to a part of the country you were visiting for the first time. Write an article for publication in your school magazine narrating your experiences.

Question 11

As a concerned student, write a letter to the Principal of your school informing him of recent acts of bullying by senior students and suggesting ways of arresting the situation.

Question 12

You are the Chief Speaker in a debate on the topic: Parents should allow their children to choose their own careers. Write your speech for or against the topic.

Question 13

Write a story, real or imaginary, which ends with "... I then realized that it pays to be disciplined."

Question 14

Your younger sister who just finished secondary school has written to confide in you that she intends to travel abroad with her friends to explore opportunities for employment. Write a letter to her giving at least three reasons why she should not take such an action.

Question 15

Write an article suitable for publication in a national newspaper on The importance of Tourism to a Developing Nation.

Question 16

The poor and needy in your country have not been adequately provided for. Write a letter to the head of your Social Welfare Department describing their plight and suggesting ways of improving the situation.

Question 17

You are the Chief Speaker in a debate on the topic: Today's children should not be blamed for not taking education seriously. Write your contribution for or against the proposition.

Question 18

Write a story to illustrate the saying: Opportunity comes but once.

Question 19

You are about to leave secondary school and a friend of yours who is attending school in another town has written to enquire about what you wish to do after leaving school. Write a reply to him explaining your plans.

Question 20

Write an article suitable for publication in your school magazine on the effects of drug abuse.

Question 21

Write a letter to the Minister of Education in your country on the poor state of schools in your area and its effect on the performance of students.

Question 22

Your housemaster has just been promoted to head another school. As the house prefect, write a speech you would deliver during the send-off party organized for him.

Question 23

Write a story to illustrate the saying: A stitch in time saves nine.

Question 24

A friend of yours has confided in you that she intends to drop out of school to get married. Write a letter to her giving at least three reasons why she should stay in school.

Question 25

Write an article to be published in a national newspaper on the menace of indecent dressing in society.

Question 26

Your school has been performing poorly in public examinations for the past three years. Write a letter to your principal suggesting ways of making students more interested in academic work.

Question 27

You are the chief speaker in a debate on the topic: Religious education should be made compulsory in schools.

Question 28

Write a story to illustrate the saying: You reap what you sow.

Question 29

You have spent about six weeks in your new school. Write a letter to your father telling him about your experiences so far.

Question 30

Write an article suitable for publication in your school magazine on the dangers of keeping bad company in school.

Question 31

Activities such as debates, drama, and excursions are now rare in schools in your country. As the Senior Prefect, write a letter to your principal suggesting the revival of these activities and pointing out what students stand to gain from taking part in them.

Question 32

You are the Chief Speaker in a debate on the topic: Violent video games should be banned.

Question 33

Write a story to illustrate the saying: Where there's a will, there's a way.

Question 34

You recently established contact with your sister who has been abroad for many years. Write a letter to her urging her to come home and telling her about at least three ways in which the country has changed for the better.

Question 35

Write an article for publication in a national newspaper on the migration of people from the rural to the urban areas and what should be done to reduce it.

Question 36

The sanitary condition of your community is appalling and there are fears of an outbreak of communicable diseases. Write a letter to the chairman of your local government area, drawing his attention to the problem and suggesting ways of dealing with it.

Question 37

As the senior prefect, write a speech you would deliver on your school's Prize Giving Day. You should mention achievements as well as areas that need improvement.

Question 38

Write a story ending with the expression: Since then I have always tried to avoid bad company.

Question 39

You recently established contact with your sister who has been abroad for many years. Write a letter to her urging her to come home and telling her about at least three ways in which the country has changed for the better.

Question 40

There have been many articles recently in the newspapers criticizing trafficking in children. Write an article for publication in one of your national dailies, condemning this practice.

Question 41

Write a letter of appreciation to the chairman of your local government council for the various projects executed so far by his government, pointing out other problems that require urgent attention.

Question 42

After completing a three-year term as the president of your youth club, you are presenting yourself for re-election. In an address to be presented to the club before the election, state the achievements made during your tenure and what further plans you have if re-elected.

Question 43

Write a story that illustrates the saying: It pays to be patient.

Question 44

A friend of yours who has been living in Europe for some years has written to invite you to join him. Write a reply to his letter giving at least three reasons why you would rather remain in your country.

Question 45

Write an article suitable for publication in your school magazine on the need to inculcate good moral values in the youth.

Question 46

Write a letter to the Minister of Education in your country discussing at least three ways by which the quality of education could be improved.

Question 47

You are the main speaker in a debate on the topic: Technology has made the world a better place. Write your arguments for or against the motion.

Question 48

Write a story to illustrate the saying: The devil makes work for idle hands.

Question 49

Your uncle has asked you to tell him about your educational ambition so that he may assist you. Write a letter to him thanking him and giving details of your plans.

Question 50

Write an article suitable for publication in a national newspaper on unemployment in your country, highlighting its effects and the way out.

Question 51

The rate of power outages in your locality has become alarming. Write a letter to the Area Manager of the electricity company complaining about the effects of this problem and asking him to come to your aid.

Question 52

A youth club is organizing a series of talks meant to stimulate members to prepare adequately for the future. As a youth leader, you have been invited to give a talk on "My dream for the future." Write your speech.

Question 53

Write a story ending with the statement: If I had been given the full details, I would have acted differently.

Question 54

A friend of yours wants to study in your school and has written to you for information and advice. Write a reply to him, telling him all that he needs to know about the school.

Question 55

Some core values in your society have been eroded by modernization. Write an article suitable for publication in a national newspaper on the need to revive these values for a better society.

Question 56

The Parent-Teacher Association of your school has decided to transform the school into a single-sex school. As the School Prefect, write a letter to the committee giving at least three reasons why you disagree with the decision.

Question 57

You are the main speaker in a debate on the topic: Education is the best legacy a parent can give a child. Write your arguments for or against the motion.

Question 58

Write a story to illustrate the saying: Pride goes before a fall.

Question 59

Write a letter to your friend in another school giving him/her three reasons why your school has been excelling in academic work.

Question 60

Write an article suitable for publication in a national newspaper on the topic: The importance of national sports festivals.

Question 61

‘The School Hero’ is an award meant for the student considered to have exhibited exemplary leadership qualities. As the Senior Prefect, write a letter to the Head of your school, giving three reasons why your nominee should be given the award.

Question 62

You are the main speaker in a debate on the topic: Students in rural schools have more advantages than those in urban centres. Write your arguments for or against the motion.

Question 63

Write a story ending with the statement: We apologized to each other and made up.

Question 64

Your father has just built a house for the family. Write a letter to your elder brother who lives abroad, describing the new house and the prestige it has accorded the family.

Question 65

Write an article suitable for publication in a national newspaper, discussing two major problems facing your country and suggesting ways of solving them.

Question 66

The electricity supply in your school has been irregular. As the Senior Prefect, write a letter to the Chairman of the Parent-Teacher Association (PTA) telling him about the effect of this on the school and the need to provide a stand-by generator for the school.

Question 67

Your principal is due for retirement at the end of the academic year. As the Senior Prefect, write a speech which you would deliver to honour him/her at a send-off party.

Question 68

Write a story ending with the expression: At last, we arrived safely.

Question 69

Many years after leaving school, a former classmate has written to inform you that he is now a successful businessman. Write a reply describing the progress you too have made since you left school.

Question 70

Write an article suitable for publication in a national newspaper on the need to patronize locally made goods in your country.

Question 71

Concerns have been raised about the indiscriminate importation and screening of foreign movies in your country. Write a letter to the Minister of Culture and Tourism discussing the effects of this trend and suggesting three ways of dealing with it.

Question 72

You are the main speaker in a debate on the topic: Our forefathers were happier than we are now. Write your arguments for or against the motion.

Question 73

Write a story to illustrate the saying: Do not count your chickens before they are hatched.

Question 74

Write an article suitable for publication in a national newspaper on the high cost of living, suggesting at least three ways in which the government of your country can tackle the problem.

Question 75

Write a letter to the Chairman of the Environmental Protection Agency on the effects of illegal felling of trees and suggest ways to remedy the situation.

Question 76

You are the main speaker in a debate on the topic: Children of literate parents perform better in school than those of illiterate parents. Write your arguments for or against the motion.

Question 77

You are the main speaker in a school debate on the topic: The youth of today have more distractions in their education than their parents had. Write your argument for or against the motion.